Homeschool Riding Lesson Registration

As a former homeschooling family, We know how important it is to offer various extra-curricula activities throughout the days for your children. Horseback riding provides good physical exercise and fun. The kids get outdoors in the fresh air and in tune with nature.

Riding also improves balance and coordination and works on core strength and flexibility. It is also a great stress reliever from the day to day pressures of life! As a child progresses in their skills they develop confidence and a sense of freedom. Horseback riding can also be a great social sport. At Fitzgerald Stables your children can ride and learn together in a small group.

Lessons are weekdays, September - June, and are during the school day, from 10 AM - 2 PM, Tuesday - Friday. Lessons are offered in blocks of 4 & 8 lessons, ages 5 and up.
